Kiwanis Club Notes

A movie depicting the working of a child guidance clinic under the direction of the Michigan Department of Health was the program at Monday night's meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling.

Dr. B. E. Henie was in charge of the program and talked briefly before the showing of the movie entitled "The Angry Boy." It was a typical case that might happen in any home school community. The plot then unfolded the work of the clinic in straightening out the boys thinking and aiding his home life and environment.

The clinics which are now established in Michigan's more heavily populated centers will do a lot to combat juvenile delinquency and to stop the trend of youth towards unlawful acts.

Expect Another Big Week End For Grayling Winter Sports

Another big week end for the Grayling Winter Sports Park is expected this week end as cold weather is keeping the park in top shape for all types of winter sports.

Two Detroit clubs are coming up for the week end. The Toby Club of Detroit numbering about 50 will arrive in Grayling Friday for the week end with the Club 30 with about a like number coming in on Saturday. A large drive in crowd is also expected to swell attendance on Saturday and Sunday.

Plans for the Grayling Winter Sports Carnival are rapidly rounding into shape according to Carnival Chairman Alfred Sorenson. Harn Hester and his dance band of Traverse City has been signed up to play for the Michigan Snow Queen's ball which will be held at the Grayling High Gym on Saturday night, February 16. Invitation to winter sports queens from all over Michigan have gone out and as many as twenty winter queens may take part in the annual selection of the Michigan Snow Queen.

Arrangements for the coronations are still underway and no announcement as to the persons to present the queen Saturday night at the ball or crown her on Sunday at the big ice and snow playground can be made as yet.

This last week end about 150 Wayne University students enjoyed winter sports in Grayling and selected Miss Kristen Linsberg an 18 year old blonde student as their winter queen. Miss Linsberg was crowned Sunday at the park on the ice and snow throne by Roy Trudgeon, president of Grayling Winter Sports. She will return for the Carnival to take part in the queen contest.

Carnival Plans Are Fast Shaping Up

Two basketball games followed by a dance at the Grayling High School Gym Saturday night drew a crowd estimated at over 200. The affair was sponsored by the Grayling Women's Club in an effort to raise funds to build a Community building. About 300 tickets were sold and after expenses about $200 will be placed in a separate community building fund by the club.

The Legion held a party at their post hall on Saturday night and from the proceeds gave a donation to the Women's Club to add to their community building fund.

The evening started off with the Bear Archery team meeting Auto Lite of Bay City. Auto Lite won by the close score of 48 to 45 with Joe LaRose of Bay City leading the scoring with 16.

He estimated that it took him about 4 hours to play 100 of the records. Middle and John LaMotte called for square dancing.

How To Lessen The Tax Burden

At various times, proposals have been made for placing reasonable limits on the amount of taxes that can be levied on the American people by the Federal Government. The best of these was introduced last September by Congressman Chauncey W. Reed of Illinois ranking minority member of the House Judiciary Committee. It takes the form of a "Joint Resolution proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States Relative to Taxes on Incomes, Inheritances and Gifts." To become law, it must be approved by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, and then ratified by three-fourths of the states.

The heart of Mr. Reed's proposal is to fix the maximum rate of all taxes, duties and excises on income at 25 per cent. There are but two exceptions, both of which are obviously necessary in these discordant times. First, by a three-fourths majority, Congress may raise the maximum rate to 40 per cent for periods, either successive or otherwise, not exceeding one year each. Second, in the event of a war which creates a national emergency so grave as to necessitate such action to avoid national disaster, Congress could entirely suspend the limitation on taxation, also by a three-fourths vote. All of this would apply to businesses as well as individuals.

Mr. Reed's amendment would also deprive Congress of the power to impose death and gift taxes, leaving this means of taxation exclusively to the states where competition would tend to keep rates within reasonable bounds.

The only way to cut the cost of government is to take some of the power away from the bureaucrats and department heads and all the rest of the power hungry politicians.

Excessive taxation can destroy a nation from within. We are at the danger point now. The Reed Amendment is an excellent solution to our gravest domestic problem.

We've Re-Equipped

We have recently installed five new machines at a great expense, so as to give you the utmost in dry cleaning, both in quality and service. Only the highest grade solvents and detergents are used in our cleaning which is done right here in our plant.

We can now finish on our new adjustable all topcoats, gabardine suits and those hard to press ladies form-fitting suits to perfection, no shine — no seam marks.

Each garment that has loose cuffs, loose seams unsewed seams or a small hole, we repair at no charge to you. We also do minor alterations pocket tips, zippers and patching at a nominal fee.

A garment cleaned often gives longer wear. So don't press the dirt into your clothes or let them get too soiled, but let us clean them for you regularly.

We can give one day service on anything not too soiled, except dresses, if brought in by 10:00 in the morning.

The various materials in dresses usually require more work and rerunning.

"Out of thin air" comes the HIGHEST HORSEPOWER in Buick history

NOTE FROM YOUR BUICK DEALER:

Presented here is the story of a great new engine development, as told by the man who did the job. We reprint the story here in its entirety — as we couldn't beat it if we tried.

No, we didn't have to build a new engine.

We took Buick's valve-in-head Fireball Engine—which makes the most of high compression. We drew on 12 patient years of Buick carburetion research.

And we came up with more might, more miles, from gas—right out of thin air, in more ways than one.

When you talk about "miles per gallon" you think of fuel, because that's what you buy.

But air's free—and for every gallon of gasoline, a busy engine can gulp more than 8,000 gallons of air.

The problem is to deliver air in the right proportions, throughout the full range of speeds at which you drive.

A carburetor—big enough to supply the air needed at full throttle—can be wasteful in stop-and-go driving. A carburetor sized for thrift in city traffic literally smothers your engine when you really give it the gun.

So Buick engineers developed the Airpower carburetor—a four-barrel automatic—and here's how it works.

Loading along, two barrels are working, two stay closed. And you get a low-speed thrill and smoothness that's out of this world.

As you pick up speed, the "stand-bys" come into play—feeding not just more gas, but more air too—so you keep getting maximum power from each drop of fuel.

You have 170 effortless horsepower when you need it—a tremendous reserve ready to go into instant action at the nudge of your toe.

You have the satisfaction of knowing that you get this power with a frugal use of gas. At 40 you use less gas than you formerly used at 30.

That's the story of Airpower carburetion in facts and figures straight from the factory. But statistics can't tell you the breath-taking joy of heading for new horizons in a great-powered new ROADMASTER.

When can you do that? Better come in soon. Lots of other folks are flocking into our showroom these days to see the greatest array of new Buicks we've had in years.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Lung Cancer Survey To Begin Soon

Volunteers of the American Cancer Society in Crawford County are participating in a national survey to determine whether smoking affects the development of lung cancer. Mrs. E. R. Burns, survey chairman announced.

About ten volunteers are being recruited to serve as researchers in the project which is scheduled to get under way soon. Each researcher will obtain smoking histories from ten men in the 50 to 69 age bracket.

Mrs. Burns said that the survey is being made because lung cancer deaths have risen from 2,000 in 1933 to almost 13,000 in 1948. No other site of the disease shows this rapid mortality increase.

The smoking habits of between 100,000 and 500,000 men in the U. S. will be recorded. Once a year thereafter, each researcher will report whether the "cases" are alive or not. In the event of death, the ACS medical committees will seek the cause from death certificates or other medical records. Statisticians in the national ACS office then will sift the data to determine whether death rates from lung cancer are any greater in smokers than in non-smokers.

The 50 to 69 age bracket is being surveyed because lung cancer development is most probable during these years and constitutes a larger proportion of all deaths than at any other time, according to Mrs. Burns. Most of the men who served in World War I are in this age bracket. If those studied are smokers their habit probably was formed during or shortly after the war when cigarette smoking began its rapid increase.

Women are not included in the survey since their mortality from lung cancer is only one-fourth that of men. It thus would require four times as many records of women to obtain valid data.

"In 1948, the most recent year for which we have national statistics, 16,331 men and women died of cancer of the lung and bronchus," Mrs. Burns said. "There is every reason to believe that the number is considerably higher this year."

"In the last several years the results of a number of research studies on smoking and lung cancer have indicated a possible correlation. However, the degree of correlation varies from slight to extremely high."

"After careful evaluation of the various studies, the American Cancer Society decided that the evidence is not sufficiently conclusive for the Society to go on record one way or the other as to whether smoking and lung cancer are related. The present study is being undertaken in an effort to find conclusive answers."

Weekly News-Letter

From the Desk of Representative Emil A. Peliz.

The recent suggestion of the Citizens' Advisory group working with the Little Hoover Commission to the effect that the Conservation Commission be abolished in favor of a single director to be appointed by the Governor, has raised a storm of protests from organizations and Boards of Supervisors throughout the State.

I have received a half bushel of resolutions from all parts of the State against such a change. All of them praise the efforts and the achievements of the present seven man commission, the members of which are now appointed by the Governor for a staggered six year term. This practically eliminates the possibilities of any one Governor appointing all of them and has resulted in keeping that department out of politics. We should not change our present system. Without exception, all the resolutions that I have received, and so far as I know, those received by other members of the Legislature, acclaim our system and the Michigan Department of Conservation to be the finest in the country. This fact has been recognized by many similar departments in other States and they have called on the experts in our Conservation Department to help them solve some of their problems.

We will shortly have before us a deer herd control bill designed to give our Conservation Commission and Department control of the emergency that we are faced with. I am wondering how many resolutions we will have from some of the same sources protesting against such a bill on the grounds that our present Conservation Commission and department is not capable of properly handling the situation. Our deer herd problem has become an emergency because in the past public opinion has prevented the Legislature from granting control power to the Commission. It will be interesting to watch the developments during the next few weeks and the remainder of the season.

A number of the members of the Legislature, the writer included, are receiving pats on our backs these days. The reason: A one cent cut in the price of gasoline which is beginning to take place in Michigan. During the time when we were passing the additional 1 1/2 cent gas tax increase along with other desirable highway legislation we predicted that the Petroleum industry would absorb at least a part of the tax. You will recall that after the bills were passed in the 1951 session over the Governor's veto, he called a meeting of the representatives of the petroleum interests with the idea of asking them to absorb the tax with the hope that he would then get credit for it. The meeting was a flop. The oil companies were not going to be pushed around by the Governor or anybody else. They, therefore, added the tax to the price and Michigan motorists paid. We then predicted that because of the Governor's bungling, such action of absorbing the tax by the oil companies would be delayed for six months. We missed it by about three weeks. Six of the major oil companies have now reduced the price in at least a part of the State at this time. It is expected that others will follow and that soon it will spread throughout the State. When that happens, the motorists will only be paying one half cent but will receive the benefit of the one and one half cent for much needed highway maintenance and improvement. The Governor alone is responsible for wringing the additional dollars out of each motorist's pocket during the last six months. His zeal for credit has been expensive to the consumers of gasoline.

It's Loaded—So Be Careful!

Before you drive the Golden Anniversary Cadillac, there is one thing we should like to impress upon you: It's loaded—so be careful!

There's more power in that dynamic engine than you'll ever need—except for the rarest emergency. And it should never, never be used for dramatic display on the get-away.

If somebody else wants the honors when the light turns green—let 'em go. You don't have to prove anything, anyway.

But that great power works for you—even when you're not unleashing it to the limit. It works for you as a reserve—and gives you that easy, quiet, flowing ride which makes a Cadillac such a joy to own and such a thrill to drive.

It gives you that slow-moving engine—that simply loafs at all legal speeds—and which is a literal Methuselah when it comes to long life.

And it is a primary reason for that unbelievably low upkeep expense, at which Cadillac owners never cease to marvel. Some fleet owners have found, for instance, that Cadillacs cost less to operate and maintain than any other cars they have ever used. And the easy-going engine, that never operates under strain, is a big factor in this economy.

Yes—Cadillac's great power works for you—and is necessary—and is one of the vital reasons why Cadillac's performance is so outstandingly different.

But we trust that no Cadillac owner will ever use it for dominating the highway. To do so is not only counter to the rules of safety—but it is not in keeping with the graciousness the motoring public has come to expect from the person who sits at the wheel of a Cadillac.

Have you seen this great Golden Anniversary creation? If not, we should be pleased to welcome you to our showrooms—at any time.

Kumpula spoke briefly at the session, explaining the Grayling School forest project and other work.

Text Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 4, 5 and 6, LaElle Watkins, as representative of the Grayling High Conservation Club will attend a Leadership Training course at the Higgins Lake Conservation School.

Attending the two day session at the Higgins Lake Conservation School were Gene Cornwell, Dohn Weaver, Ace Leng, Clarence Stillman and Art Howse. Methods materials for teaching conservation in public schools were discussed.

Polio Poster Boy

March of Dimes Poster Boy Larry Jim Gross, 7, gets sledding instructions from his dad, Air Force Chief Warrant Officer Jim Gross. The boy, whose left leg was weakened by polio when he was 18 months old, is visiting U. S. offices in behalf of 1952 March of Dimes this January. terms of a $750,000 campaign budget, some 25 percent more than the loyal members came up with last year. But costs are up for politicians same as for anyone else. Postage, newspaper space, radio and television time have climbed in cost.

In Detroit, February 8, a $50 a plate birthday dinner will be held to raise funds for Williams. Mayor F. Joseph Flaugh of Benton Harbor, chairman of the dinner-committee says, "Originally we intended to present the proceeds to the governor without any strings on their use." Now he says it has been decided to give Williams the money for such non-partisan purposes as his radio report to the people, and specifically not for political campaign use. Flaugh says he is a Republican, but is supporting the governor for reelection.

Senator Charles Diggs (D-Detroit) has introduced a resolution calling for a constitutional amendment extending voting privileges to 18-year-olds. The resolution, if adopted, would submit the issue to voters in November.

Last time this issue came up an unofficial poll showed most 18-year-olds do not consider themselves mature enough to vote.

Michigan's field crop production last year was second highest on record. Combined production of corn for grain, wheat, oats, barley and rye totaled 3,600,000 tons, 11 percent more than in 1950 and higher than any other year except 1949.

If a bill introduced in the legislature by Rep. Lawrence Lindner of Stockbridge is passed, Junior can cut Pop without a drop of the cup that cheers. His measure would prohibit liquor establishments from selling or furnishing liquor to any person when forbidden to do so by the husband, wife, parent, child, guardian, employer or township supervisor.

Violations of state sausage laws have jumped from 56 convictions in 1950 to 123 in 1951. Meat shortages and increasing prices are cited as the probable causes.

A Lansing man says he lost his job because of his religious beliefs. Lee Pruett, 41, lathe operator for a tool and die company said he refused to join the union, believing all men "should come to brotherhood without organizing or being affiliated with any natural force to which they must pay dues." He said he offered to contribute an amount equal to the union dues to any charitable organization, but was refused.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce figures it will cost every Michigan family another $248 in tax or federal debt burden if current spending plans are approved by congress. Total figure for the state $468,000,000 more.

Rep. William W. Blackney, Flint still hasn't revealed his intentions. He may retire from congress. The 75-year-old legislator has been deluged with suggestions both ways.

Dr. Lee M. Thurston, superintendent of public instruction, has asked legislature for $15,000 to conduct an engineering survey of the possibilities of setting up a statewide educational TV network. Michigan colleges are willing to assist with the survey.

Average life expectancy in Michigan has jumped from 49 years to 66 years in the last half-century.

And it is expected to keep on rising. In 1950 seven out of every 100 residents were over 65. In 1900 it was five out of 100.

Dimes Drive In Final Week

As the 1952 March of Dimes campaign neared its close this week, national and local officials of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis joined in predicting that the American people would see to it that the March of Dimes overtakes and keeps pace with the quickening march of polio.

Doubling of the March of Dimes period this year was necessitated by tripled incidence of polio during the last four years. Each year the National Foundation has gone into debt providing for patient care of children and adults stricken with polio — the only epidemic disease still on the increase in America.

Incidence during the last four years has been so high that an entirely new concept of polio has been developed, a concept geared to 30,000 cases a year, instead of the ten to twelve thousand cases experienced during the previous decade.

Since scientists say it is likely that accelerated polio incidence will continue until the final answer to the disease is discovered, it seems clear that the only way left open to cope with the challenge of this frightening new concept is to meet it squarely with a new concept of giving.

Only a new and enlarged concept of giving will enable the nation to cope with the three big increases that cloud the polio pic-

Michigan Mirror

Michigan's whirlwind legislature still is hitting it at a fast trot. Lawmakers are cranking for still more speed as the February 21 deadline for all bills other than appropriation measures draws ever closer.

Both chambers have jammed calendars full of early bills, and committees are burning midnight oil, something unprecedented in Michigan annals for this time of the year. The legislature is determined to meet its new early adjournment time.

Senator George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale) has promised to keep his taxation committee's nose to the grindstone in a search for the revenue needed to balance Michigan's red-ink budget.

But while the rush continues, politics are not forgotten and the steady whirr of the phones in the background.

Republicans are thinking in terms of increased incidence, increased numbers of carry-over cases, requiring expensive long-term care, and increased costs of hospitalization, trained personnel and equipment.

On National Foundation records are cases that have cost upwards of $30,000; and bills of $5,000 to $10,000 per year for many other patients are by no means rare.

All of these facts make clear why the 1952 March of Dimes must succeed and why its slogan this year is: "This fight is yours."

The big
1952 FORD

Outperforms them all!

Ford's completely new 191-h.p. high-compression, low-friction Six, with free-running overhead valves, is the most modern Six in the industry. And Ford's high-compression V-8, now 110 h.p., is the most powerful engine in the low-price field. Both are available with performance-proved Fordomatic Drive.

Exclusive Power Pilot Economy!

Both the new Ford Allstate Milder Six and the Siroto-Six V-8 have the exclusive Ford Automatic Power Pilot. This completely integrated carburetion-ignition-combustion system gives you high-compression "go" on "regular" gas.

New Coachcraft Bodies!

Ford's new Coachcraft Bodies are longer, stronger... distinctive in their modern beauty. They offer new half-tight construction which seals out dust, weather and noise. And Ford has more color and upholstery combinations than any other car in its field.

Out-rides them all!

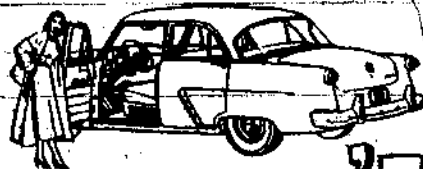

The '52 Ford gives you riding comfort such as you have never before experienced in a car in the low-price field. With front springs tailored to the weight of each model, longer rear springs and diagonally mounted shock absorbers, Ford's Automatic Ride Control gives you the smoothest, easiest ride of them all—a level ride on straightaways, an even feel on curves.

Out-sizes them all!

The '52 Ford has longer wheelbase, wider front tread and greater length. It's big inside and big outside, with spacious seating for six and the largest luggage locker of them all.

Full-Circle Visibility!

With narrower corner pillars, picture windows all around and a rear window that's 48% larger you have "all-direction" vision that adds to your enjoyment and your safety.

Out-values them all!

With such modern design and engineering features as new High-Style Control Panel, new Power-Flow Choke and Brake Pedals, 1952 Coachcraft Bodies, and new Fordomatic Drive, Ford adds up to more dollars and cents value than any car in its price class.

'52 Ford

Fordomatic Drive, Coachcraft bodies, picture windows, 48% larger rear window, and two-tone colors on Customline Sedan optional at extra cost. Randomly, custom paint and trim subject to change without notice.

You can pay more but you can't buy newer or better!

Michigan Mirror

All eyes are on the state legislature again. Will it pass in the next three months a corporation tax bill? Will more consumer taxes be levied? Will the lawmakers balance the budget? Can the deficit spending be halted?

All are weighty and ponderous issues facing the lawmakers. But rest assured, there will be budget piling.

And deep in the pile of budget bills will be one which undoubtedly will draw little fanfare from the busy lawmakers and an apparently disinterested public. The Michigan Tourist Council request for $452,100. Officials now are wrought up because of unemployment in Michigan's number one industry, the automobile business.

Tourism is Michigan's Number two or three industry, depending on whether farming is to be included as an industry.

And Michigan's tourist business has fallen off. In 1945 this state attracted 4 per cent of the nation's tourists. That year the Tourist Council was formed. Managers of the four already existing tourist organizations became members.

By 1949 Michigan was drawing 9 per cent of America's vacationers and was third state in the nation in total tourists. From 1945 until 1949 the council appropriation was $250,000. This year it was reduced to $225,000. Michigan dropped to a fourth place tie with Pennsylvania and drew only 8 per cent of U. S. vacationers.

That 1 per cent decrease represents 350,000 fewer trips taken in the state at an average of $211 per trip. Michigan lost $74,000,000 in tourist business. The treasury therefore lost $1,497,000 in sales tax revenues since 67 per cent of all tourist purchases are subject to that tax, not to mention cigarette, gasoline and whisky taxes. Appropriation last year was $270,000, but it could not offset the 46 per cent rise in advertising costs.

A survey taken some time ago indicated that every dollar invested in Michigan tourism brought a return of $128. Good interest.

The Conservation Commission again is out to gain discretionary power to set deer hunting regulations, a move, advocated for some years now. Such a law would allow the commission to regulate seasons and bag regulations according to the supply of game in any specific area. Lawmakers have been cool toward giving up their strings on hunting.

Mayor Harry Tompkins of Boyne City, up for re-election not only invited opposition but went out and worked for it. He didn't like the idea of an uncontested election so he circulated petitions for a rival.

Friends of Rep. Charles Potter of Cheboygan have been pushing him to run for the senate. He hasn't made up his mind. For the house he has a cinch. The senate race could be risky.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams has high hopes for a good legislative session in Michigan. "If the Republicans really mean what they say."

Construction of the new state office building is slowing because of a lower allocation of steel than was expected. Bad news for state workers now housed in rabbit warrens in Lansing and East Lansing.

Discovery of uranium mineralization in the Upper Huronian iron formation of the Marquette range has been announced. It is not known yet whether the uranium content will warrant mining operations.

Michigan newspapers will be hosts to ten Michigan festival queens at the Michigan Press Association's All Michigan Dinner Saturday, January 26, at Michigan State College.

With scrap drives being discussed again to bolster slacking auto production, Michiganites are reminded of World War II days. Copper is one of the most vital metals running short. John B. Martin, auditor-general, says Michigan, above all states, should take its own steps to stimulate a

Northeast Mich. Council Adopts Work Program

ALPENA—Officers were elected and a tentative by-laws and program of work adopted by the new Northeastern Michigan Industrial Development Council formed at a meeting of representatives of seven counties Thursday afternoon at Alpena.

Berkeley Smith, East Tawas publisher, who was chairman of the organization committee, was named chairman of the new organization. Don Brown, city manager of Cheboygan, was named vice-chairman; Frank Catto, secretary-manager of the Alpena Chamber of Commerce, secretary; and Milo N. Johnson, of Harrisville, treasurer.

Two directors are to be named from each of the 15 counties included in the organization: Northern Bay, Arenac, Isosco, Alpena, Cheboygan, Montmorency, Freque Isle, Crawford, Osceola, Roscommon, Oscoda, Ogemaw, Clare and Gladwin.

Patterned after the North Western Council, organized during the past year, aims of the new organization include, establishing a continuing service for industry already located in the area, to study methods of expanding their payrolls, and to assist in finding solutions to problems such as distribution and supplies that will lead to the area's development; community industrial surveys; publication of a Northeastern Michigan Industrial brochure; special studies of factors pertaining to the area, such as fuels, transportation, labor supply, etc.; and initiating contacts with industrial prospects.

Present at the meeting at Alpena Thursday were: George Billings, industrial agent for the Michigan Economic Development Department; R. N. Enyart and Harold Stark, of Mio; Lawrence Lark and Lee H. Gregory, of Rogers City; O. W. Bishop, Frank Catto and F. T. Johnston, of Alpena; Ernest Reid, Lyle Wallace, Roland Church and Clarence Cooley, of Rose City; G. N. Reid, of Lupton; Berkeley Smith and C. Dwight Wood, industrial development commissioner of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway Co., of East Tawas; Burdge, Ashton and Ray Ewing, of Oscoda; George Blake, of Standish; and Don Brown, John Werner, George Aikinson and William Martin, of Cheboygan.

Fledge of the full support of his department to the new organization was given by Mr. Wood, of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway.
